Your lives have ended.

How you use your new lives is up to me.

That's the theory.

OUR STORY UNTIL NOW

INTRODUCTION

The year is 2005.

On the way to a field trip, a school bus meets with a sudden accident. The students think at first that they've died, only to awaken in an abandoned room in an elementary school. Among them is a shy boy, Naiki. Just as Kei Kurona is taking an interest in Naiki, all the students are transported away on a mission for the black ball known as GANTZ. Right away they begin to hear strange noises, and they suffer their first victims. Could their target, the "Beast Aliens," be within?
Now begins the trial for those girls who chose to wear the Jet-black suits!!

With an inherent sense of justice, he bravely faces the mysterious animals.

A zoo at night sets the stage for a bizarre hunting game. There have been many victims already, but Kurona and the others wearing the black suits put up a good fight. Then, their target, the "Beast Alien" appears, and though Naiki bravely faces it, he is dealt a fatal wound. Though Kurona is prepared to die, Naiki convinces her to stand firm. Miraculously, the mysterious college students are able to destroy the Beast Alien using an opening Kurona creates for them. And then

THE BEAST ALIEN HAS BEEN SUBJUGATED.
BUT WHAT FOLLOWS THE END OF THIS BIZARRE HUNTING GAME...
